

Amber Rogers graduated from the University of South Carolina in 2007 with a Bachelor of Arts in Political Science and History. Upon graduation, she entered the "real world," gaining experience and knowledge of the workplace. After a short year of working, she began the process of applying to law school. She will graduate from the Charleston School of Law in December of 2012.

Lauren Spears is from Spartanburg, SC and graduated from Wofford College with a BA in English Studies. After college, she worked in finance with BB&T for 2 years before attending law school. Lauren will graduate from Charleston School of Law in December 2012. She is a member of the Charleston County Student Bar Association, Women in Law, Criminal Law Society and Phi Delta Phi. She also serves on the Elections Committee at Charleston School of Law and is a Guardian Monitor for the Charleston County Adult Guardianship Assistance and Monitoring Program. Lauren has worked as a litigation paralegal for the law firm of Michael E. Spears, P.A. since 2007, and will continue with this firm as an attorney following graduation from Charleston School of Law.

Tiffany Winks graduated Cum Laude from Clemson University with a BS in Marketing. She is originally from Chillicothe, Ohio, but has resided in South Carolina since 2005. Prior to Law School she spent a year volunteering for Sea Island Habitat for Humanity as an AmeriCorps leader. During her time at Charleston School of Law, she served as the 2011-2012 Community Service Committee Co-Chair. Currently, she is a member of the Federal Courts Law Review, with her Note pending publication in the Student Works Edition. She is also a member of RESOLVED: Journal of Alternative Dispute Resolution. Tiffany will graduate from Charleston School of Law in December 2012.