

Lisa Mozley was raised in California. She graduated with a BA in Art History from College of Charleston. She recently graduated from the Charleston School of Law in May 2012. During Law School she was a member of the Moot Court Board and participated in the ABA's Guardianship Monitoring Program through Charleston County Probate Court. She is the mother of two very active young boys. She currently resides in Washington, DC.

Jennie Smith attended Miami University (Oxford, OH) and graduated with a BA in political science. After graduation she attended paralegal school in Philadelphia, PA and subsequently worked for both plaintiff and defense firms in Rhode Island, California, Virginia and South Carolina. Ms. Smith additionally obtained her MBA from The Citadel in 2006. She graduated from the Charleston School of Law in 2012. She currently resides in Mount Pleasant SC with her husband and two daughters.

My name is Samantha Vaughn, a May 2012 graduate from the Charleston School of Law. I attended Coastal Carolina University and received a BS in Marine Science. I began my legal pursuit at the Florida Coastal School of Law in Jacksonville, Florida and later transferred to Charleston. I am married and currently reside in Goose Creek, awaiting my SC Bar results.